

BODY OF GEM DEALER HACKED TO PIECES AND BURIED BY SLAYERS

Arrest and Confession of Four Solves Mystery of Missing
Boston Salesman.

LAWRENCE, Mass., March 11.—That John K. Shanahan, a Boston jewelry salesman, missing for a month, was murdered and his body hacked to pieces, was disclosed today. Four Armenians confessed, according to the police, to complicity in his death or in the disposition of his body, part of which was buried in the woods at Frye Village, in Andover. The arrest is said to be at the bottom of the Merrimack River.

Three of the men alleged to have confessed are employees of textile mills and the fourth is Mike Zalkian, a coffee house proprietor. It was Zalkian who gave the information which resulted in the finding of the body.

Shanahan was killed on the night of Feb. 9 during a quarrel, according to the police. The fight started over the sale of a watch, and the salesman was killed with a hammer.

Shanahan had only 10 or 12 cents in money, it was claimed. His case, containing about $500 worth of jewelry, was found in the home of Charles Barbarian, one of the men arrested.

According to the confession, the bundles in which parts of the body were wrapped were left in the woods, covered only with snow. Fearing that when the snow melted their crime would be discovered, the three men consulted Zalkian, and he insisted this was the first he knew of the murder.

The Picturesque Style of 1860 and 24 Other Models in Women's Silk Dresses at $25

Did you see Doris Keane in "Romance"? If so, you can easily imagine the charm of this new taffeta dress with deep flounces, edged with ribbon velvet and finished with dainty bouquets. Of course, this gown, which is merely an echo of the Period of 1860, is hoopless. As it has drapings of lace for sleeves, it will be ideal for dancing.

If you prefer Crepe de Chine or Crepe Meteor, there are about a dozen styles in these soft, clinging silks—the others are of taffeta.

These Silk Shirts for Men Tomorrow Will Be $3.50

The maker exercised very good judgment when he introduced the slightest cotton threads in the weave—for he probably added a dozen more launderings to the life of the shirts. They have the appearance of rich Taffeta-like Silk and there is a goodly selection of shades in candy stripes, soft French cuffs, and the best possible workmanship has been put into every garment. In fact, this manufacturer makes the majority of GIMBEL high grade shirts. Sizes 14 to 17.
